

Festive Holiday Stationery Set

Take the stress out of writing thank-you notes and seasonal letters to family and friends with this festive stationery set featuring helpful letter-writing tips and cues.

Demme® LEARNING

demmelearning.com

REV1026

Festive Holiday Stationery Set

Holiday thank-you cards and letters can be fun with these helpful letter-writing tips!
Not sure what to write? Keep it simple! It can be just 2-4 sentences.

Always start with:

- Date: _____
  (When are you writing it?)
- Dear _____,
  (Who are you writing to?)

How should I start?

- Thank you for the
- I am glad we could spend time
- I hope you enjoyed
- When we get together
- I am excited to see you
- I hope you are having a nice

What should I write about?

- Mention something you did (or plan to do) together.
- Thank them for a specific gift.
- Tell them how you plan to use the gift(s).
- Ask them about someone in their family or their pet.
- Tell them about someone in your family or your pet.
- Tell them about something fun you did with family or friends.
- Tell them (or ask them) about special weather (example: pretty snow, unusually cold or warm, lovely clear day).
- Tell them about a special event.
- Say that you hope to see them soon.

Still not sure what to say?

Try making an Idea Bank of things you can write about to that person.

Example: Aunt Lorna Idea Bank

soft teddy bear gift

visit to the zoo

wrapping gifts together

cooking dinner together

sledding on the hill

decorating a tree

Always end with:

- Love,
- Thank you,
- Sincerely,

Then write or sign your name.

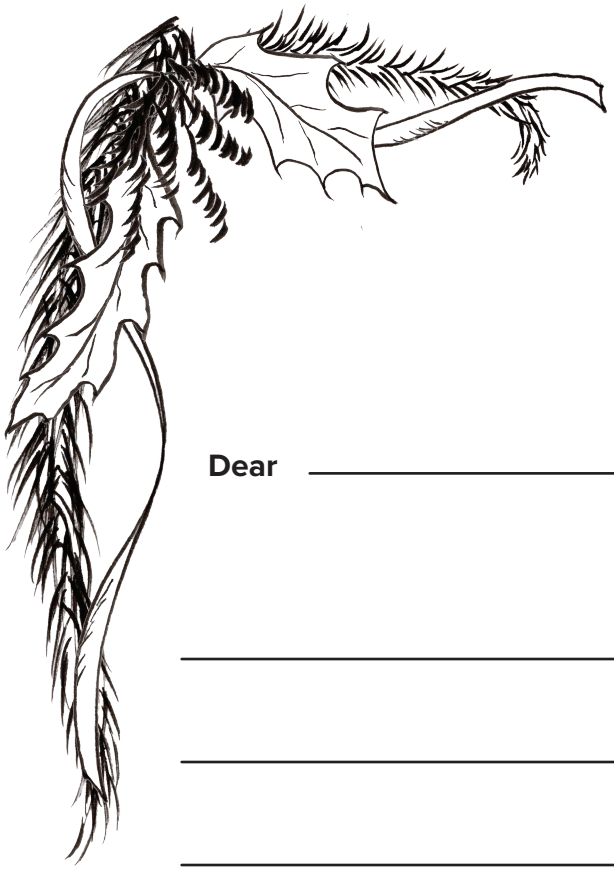
© 2026 Demme Learning | REV1026



Date: _____

Dear _____,

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____,

_____

Date:_____

Dear _____ ,

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____ ,

_____

Date:_____

Dear _____ ,

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____ ,

_____

