

Color is used in the chunking activity in Spelling You See®, but it should not be a barrier to usage. This symbol-coded answer key is designed to be used by those who have difficulty distinguishing between colors or have color vision deficiency.

How to use the Symbol-Coded Answer Key

Using this supplemental answer key is easy:

- Provide the symbol key below to your student.
- Your student identifies and marks letter patterns with the indicated symbol.
- Compare your student's work to the symbol-coded answer key.

This supplemental document does not replace the Instructor's Handbook. Only the symbol-coded chunking solutions are included here. The rest of the information and instructions necessary to accurately use the program are found in the Handbook.
